+1+ BRUTAL: Chinese Leaders to Sacrifice Coronavirus Infected Cities to Save 11 Others - Over the Last 7 Days, Coronavirus Infections Have Increased 1000% ... What Happens Next?

Friday, January 31, 2020 by: Mike Adams \(Natural News\) Brutal Chinese leaders have made a decision to sacrifice entire cities of their own citizens in order to save 11 “protected” cities elsewhere, according to a bombshell leak acquired by Hong Kong media professional Stephen Shiu Yeuk-yuen.

As reported in The Epoch Times, “The 11 cities on the CCP’s priority list of being saved are Beijing, Tianjin, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Shenzhen, Hong Kong, Hangzhou, Xi’an, Shenyang, Harbin, and Urumqi. The CCP is prepared to protect these 11 cities at all cost, even if it means sacrificing other cities, Shiu said.” This secret meeting took place on Jan. 25th and demonstrates the brutality of the communist Chinese regime, which has in effect imprisoned 56 million of its own citizens in military-enforced quarantine zones where food, fuel and medical supplies are nearly depleted.

Based on information leaked from this meeting, it now appears the Chinese government leadership sees this coronavirus pandemic as an existential threat to its own existence, and it has made the decision to sacrifice millions of lives, if necessary, to protect the core cities that drive China’s economic and manufacturing power. From TET:

Shiu said he believes the epidemic, which is now getting out of control, will have “a deadly impact” on China’s economy. In his estimation, more than half of Chinese business activities will come to a halt... The insider did not give specific reasons as to why the authorities chose those 11 cities, but they are the commercial and military hubs in the country.

The brutal effort may backfire, however, as critical supplies denied to the quarantined citizens of China are resulting in the rapid proliferation of more coronavirus infections. As reported by TET:

Even after the city-wide lockdown of Wuhan, the central authorities failed to dispatch needed manpower and medical supplies, resulting in things such as corpses lying about on a hospital floor and citizens not being informed about virus prevention, all of which would further spread the virus.

Over the last 7 days, the number of confirmed cases of coronavirus infection have increased 1000%, leaping from 941 to over 9,800. The W.H.O. has declared a global pandemic emergency, and scientists have confirmed the virus is being spread by symptomless carriers who aren’t even aware that they’ve been infected.

The shut down of the Wuhan region is also starting to cause a supply chain crisis across the tech industry, and China’s industrial output has plunged 40% according to some estimates.

- The rise in new coronavirus cases outside China now constitutes a global health emergency, the World Health Organization's Emergency Committee declared on Thursday, calling on all countries to take urgent measures to contain the respiratory disease.
- When will they shut down the internet? Since The Big Wobble started daily reports of the Coronavirus, it has lost 50% of traffic and people coming to the site are warned of a "WEB-ATTACK!" by their Firewall software.
- When will they shut down the internet altogether?
- The virus has now spread to the UK, no shock but, get this, the BBC announced, the last passenger jet arrived in the UK from Wohan 10 days ago, the UK government do not know where the passengers are, in the UK, they have NOT been quarantined!

On Jan 30th, The National Health Commission of the People's Republic of China released its latest "official" figures: 10,000 confirmed cases in the Republic of China, which is probably a very conservative number. Another 15,000 are suspected. At this rate (according to their under blown doctors statistics) by the 1st of February, 25,000 people will be contaminated with 500 deaths and by the middle of February more than 500,000 will be contaminated and 114,000 deaths. <http://www.thebigwobble.org/2020/01/coronavirus-censorship-will-they-shut.html>

"Citizen journalist blows whistle on "what he saw" in Wuhan Hospital #Coronavirus"

Recently a Citizen Journalist went to Wuhan for six days to report on what he saw while there. He said inside the hospitals he visited in Wuhan, that 70% of the Coronavirus patients were on oxygen and there was a large shortage of "testing kits" and masks; regarding 70 percent of patients on oxygen, this also mimics the recent report in the worlds oldest medical journal, The Lancet, which published a report in which they gave an overview of medical cases in Wuhan and stated that 77% of the patients needed oxygen therapy. The Lancet also state that the mortality rate of those admitted to the hospital was 11%, which Harvard Virologist Eric Feigl-Ding said was, "very high".

'Burning Bodies In Secret' - New Accounts From Wuhan Detail Coronavirus Outbreak

Fri, 01/31/2020--Almost 2,000 new cases of coronavirus were confirmed in China on Thursday, lifting the country's total to approximately 9,692, surpassing all of the 2002-03 SARS epidemic in a matter of weeks. All of the deaths have been in China, now at 213. Globally, there are 9,816 cases of the deadly virus.

There have been doubts about the officially confirmed cases and deaths in China - could be much higher some claim.

The New Zealand Herald has published a new report that alleges Chinese authorities have resorted to cremating bodies in secret.

DW News East Asia correspondent William Yang cited a report from Chinese-language news outlet Initium, which said cremation facilities in Wuhan, the epicenter of the deadly virus, were receiving bodies directly from hospitals without proper identification and were excluded from the official record.

Just to add a bit more to what was mentioned in the show but I wasn't able to elaborate on - #China's state media has been reporting about building new hospitals dedicated to treating #Wuhanvirus patients in multiple provinces and cities... <https://t.co/ibPqRjfaX0>

Coronavirus Cover-Up Begins: China Threatens Social Media Users with Seven Years in Prison for Reporting Pandemic News that Doesn't Parrot "Official" Stories

China is burning through 100,000 full body health hazard suits each day, providing a strong hint about the real scale of this pandemic, despite the official figures released by the communist Chinese government. That government, by the way, has gone out of its way to artificially limit the supply of diagnostic kits in order to suppress the number of people confirmed to be carrying the virus. Here's a chart from just two days ago, showing the parabolic rise in infections. Note that the supposedly real numbers are now nearly double of what's shown in this chart:

Now, the government of China has issued "harsh warnings to silence social media postings" from users who are trying to survive the quarantined cities, which now encompass over 56 million mainland Chinese.

As The Epoch Times reported earlier today:

The outbreak of Wuhan coronavirus has made many mainland Chinese realize that the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and its media mouthpieces do not tell the truth or tell the whole story. Social media users in Wuhan, especially doctors and nurses, share their experiences and post videos on social media to alert everyone of the true situation, which the authorities find embarrassing.

People who tell the truth online are accused of "spreading rumors" – just like in the USA. Individuals who dare to report the truth about the lack of supplies or the true numbers of coronavirus infections are accused of "spreading rumors," a tactic that smacks of Big Tech censorship in the United States. As The Epoch Times reports about this warning from the communist Chinese regime:

"A variety of unsubstantiated comments posted to the internet constantly stir up public panic," the notice read, "All those who spread fake news and thus disturb social order will face up to three years in prison, detention, or disciplinary action. Those who have caused serious consequences will be given 3-year to 7-year prison terms."

That's right: Prison sentences for anyone who questions the official lies of the corrupt government. Sounds a lot like the way the tech giants operate in America when it comes to vaccines and chemotherapy: Anyone who questions the dogma of the corrupt establishment is immediately condemned as a menace to public health.

China, it seems, is borrowing Big Tech's playbook to deal with inconvenient truths they don't want the public to hear. The first casualty of every pandemic, never forget, is the truth.

Following in the footsteps of Google, which forbids all news sources unless they are "official" sources (i.e. fake news from the corrupt establishment), China has also announced that all pandemic news is forbidden unless it comes from official sources.

Via the same article link above:

A leaked document from Cyberspace Administration of China also stated that starting on Jan. 26, all social media groups are forbidden to publish any news about Wuhan pneumonia that are not from official sources. The police will arrest all those who spread unconfirmed news.

As a result of these policies, Chinese citizens are now supposed to pretend that coronavirus isn't causing people to drop dead in the streets or that infections and deaths are not taking place right in front of their own eyes.

In China, citizens who have run out of food, medicine and fuel in quarantine areas are ordered to imagine they are living bountiful lives with an abundance of everything they need, for to contradict the communist party's "official stories" is to risk ending up in an organ harvesting prison (which also may not be mentioned without fear of being sentenced to death).

In the United States, it's not much different, either: The corporate-controlled media, corrupt CDC and Big Tech monopolists also conspire to not just silence independent sources who question the official lies; they also go out of their way to destroy the reputations of the persons who dare to ask such questions. It's not quite the same as being thrown in a gulag, but it's still a character assassination with significant long-term damage.

Message Body:

Dr. Johnson, Greetings in Christ. I have been living in China for three years and am currently struggling to get out of here and return to Florida with my wife Barbara and 2 year old daughter Enya. Things are unbearably dystopian here right now. We are desperately and prayerfully trying to seek God for a way out of here. Everything is shut down and basically on lock down; with us largely hiding out in our house here. Food is running low on store shelves of the few places that are open. People with hazmat suits are seemingly everywhere. Travel is largely restricted and no one can enter any public buildings or stores without masks and other checks. We have created a gofundme account to help raise money for planet tickets back home. Would you please share the link around for us? also, here is the gofundme link. We aren't asking you for money but would just like help sharing this link as widely and quickly as possible.

This all stinks to high heaven and we need to get out before things become any worse. I hope to talk to you about whats happening here. We are inundated with propaganda and hope to describe the situation here first hand to those who have the eyes to see. I look forward to hearing from you soon brother. Thank you so very much for your time

W.H.O. Warns Countries of the World: Coronavirus Pandemic Set to GO GLOBAL by: Mike Adams NaturalNews.com

Saturday, February 01, 2020--With an 8th coronavirus infection patient now confirmed in the United States, the coronavirus pandemic looks on track to break containment in multiple countries and become a global pandemic.

That's probably why today, the World Health Organization issued an urgent warning to the countries of the world, urging nations "to be ready for a domestic outbreak" of the coronavirus. This statement was issued by WHO official Geudena Galea, speaking to the Associated Press.

The statement follows the publication of an alarming new study in The Lancet which warned that, "Independent self-sustaining outbreaks in major cities globally could become inevitable because of substantial exportation of presymptomatic cases and in the absence of large-scale public health interventions."

That scientific study, published at TheLancet.com, also warned, "Preparedness plans and mitigation interventions should be readied for quick deployment globally."

To fully grasp the severity of the problem, try to imagine Mexico responding to its own domestic outbreak with anything resembling “rapid deployment.” The very concept is absurd. Even worse, imagine this outbreak spreading to India, and the government there attempting to enforce a quarantine. (India is a nation where the government can’t even run a traffic light without causing total chaos.)

In order to try to downplay this reality, Facebook is now threatening to ban all “rumors” about the coronavirus, and Twitter — which banned us long ago — has just slapped down a permanent ban on Zero Hedge for reporting that the coronavirus might be an engineered bioweapon.

The tech giants are siding with China (as usual), making sure that all voices and channels which contradict the official communist narrative that “everything is under control” are silenced or blacklisted. Once again, Big Tech proves it is the enemy of humanity and the destroyer of knowledge. Is anyone really surprised? It is becoming more clear by the day that the risk of this coronavirus pandemic going global is extremely high. The virus is not contained even in China, where draconian containment measures have been put in place at great cost to civil liberties and human rights. The number of confirmed infections outside of China is increasing daily, and the rate of increase is beyond alarming; it’s borderline apocalyptic.

Chinas "OUTBREAK" is another PATENTED Deception!

Coronavirus Contains “HIV Insertions”, Stoking Fears Over Artificially Created Bioweapon--‘The virus even responds to treatment by HIV medications’

Zero Hedge - January 31, 2020

Image Credits: NOEL CELIS/AFP via Getty Images.

Over the past few days, the mainstream press has vigorously pushed back against a theory about the origins of the coronavirus. The theory is that China obtained the coronavirus via a Canadian research program, and started molding it into a bioweapon at the Institute of Virology in Wuhan. The theory is that the virus, which was developed by infectious disease experts to function as a bio-weapon, originated in the Wuhan-based lab of Dr. Peng Zhou, China’s preeminent researcher of bat immune systems, specifically in how their immune systems adapt to the presence of viruses like coronavirus and other destructive viruses. Somehow, the virus escaped from the lab, and the Hunan fish market where the virus supposedly originated is merely a ruse.

Now, a respected epidemiologist who recently caught flack for claiming in a twitter threat that the virus appeared to be much more contagious than initially believed is pointing out irregularities in the virus’s genome that suggests it might have been genetically engineered for the purposes of a weapon, and not just any weapon but the deadliest one of all.

In “Uncanny similarity of unique inserts in the 2019-nCoV spike protein to HIV-1 gp120 and Gag“, Indian researchers are baffled by segments of the virus’s RNA that have no relation to other coronaviruses like SARS, and instead appear to be closer to HIV. The virus even responds to treatment by HIV medications.

<https://www.infowars.com/coronavirus-contains-hiv-insertions-stoking-fears-over-artificially-created-bioweapon/>

New evidence emerges: Coronavirus “bioweapon” might have been a Chinese vaccine experiment... genes contain “pShuttle-SN” sequences, proving laboratory origin

Sunday, February 02, 2020 by: Mike Adams \(Natural News\) Two days ago, a paper published in the Biorxiv.org journal presented findings that indicated the coronavirus appeared to be engineered with “key structural proteins” of HIV. The paper, entitled, “Uncanny similarity of unique inserts in the 2019-nCoV spike protein to HIV-1 gp120” concluded that the engineering of coronavirus with such gene sequences was “unlikely to be fortuitous in nature,” providing strong scientific support for the theory that the coronavirus is an engineered bioweapon that escaped laboratory containment in China.

The coverage of this paper by Zero Hedge led to a firestorm of denials by governments, health authorities and the CIA-controlled media, not surprisingly. Any suggestion that the coronavirus was engineered as a bioweapon had to be immediately eliminated. The prevailing panic by the establishment sought to blame this outbreak on Mother Nature — i.e. bats, snakes, seafood, etc. — rather than the human beings who are playing around with deadly biological weapons that are designed to extinguish human life.

Within hours, Twitter slapped down a permanent ban on Zero Hedge, making sure the independent publisher could no longer reach its Twitter audience. After all, the first casualty in any pandemic is the truth, and Jack Dorsey is not only an enabler of pedophiles and child rapists, he’s also an authoritarian tyrant who wants to make sure the public is completely isolated from any “non official” reports about this pandemic. (Jack Dorsey has sided with communist China, in other words. Is anyone surprised?)

Under the intense pressure, the authors of the original paper have now withdrawn the paper and intend to revise it. The publication that originally carried the paper now has a warning message stating, “This article has been withdrawn. Click here for details.” (See original source link here.)

In addition, the publisher has posted a message warning that all the science papers it posts as “preliminary reports” that “should not be regarded as conclusive,” especially when the science establishment is panicked that its official narratives might be crumbling by the hour.

PROOF: The "Novel Coronavirus" Infecting the World is a MILITARY BIO-WEAPON Developed by China's Army
01 February 2020

The "novel Coronavirus" outbreak affecting China and many other countries right now, has been determined to be a military BIO-WEAPON, which was being worked on at the Wuhan Virology Laboratory by China's People's Liberation Army, Nanjiang Command. It was released and the world is now facing a massive wipe-out of humanity as a result.

The proof that this virus is a genetically-modified Bat-SARS-Like Virus, manipulated by the Chinese Army, appears below. The evidence is irrefutable.

Two separate components of genetic sequencing from HIV-1, the virus which causes AIDS, were added to Bat-SARS-Like coronavirus in the laboratory, thereby allowing it to infect human lungs via the ACES2 receptors in our lungs, and to disrupt the human body ability to fight it off, by reducing human leukocytes.

The disease sequence from the original Bat coronavirus was uploaded to the National Center for Biotechnology Information at the US National Library of Medicine, in the year 2018 by China's Institute of Military Medicine, Nanjing Command. The image below from the National Center for Biotechnology Information proves the upload (Click image to enlarge):

That Bat-SARS-Like coronavirus was issued Reference ID: AVP 70833.1 by the National Center for Biotechnology Information at the U.S. Library of Medicine.

MORE: a new study shows that elements of HIV have been found in the new "novel coronavirus!": LINK TO STUDY HERE

There is no way in nature that the Bat coronavirus could fortuitously acquire the HIV genetic sequences, without causing a mutation of the Virus Envelope. The ONLY way the virus envelope could obtain the HIV genetics and still remain 100% identical to the 2018 sample, is if the HIV genes were added in a laboratory. So what the human race is now facing, is a intentionally released military bio-weapon. The original Bat-SARS-Like Coronavirus was identified by China's People's Liberation Army, through the Institute of Military Medicine, Nanjiang Command in the year 2018. They uploaded the virus sequence and they were the sole entity in possession of the virus.

Here we are, two years later, and the virus they had has been changed in a way that cannot occur in nature without mutating the virus envelope protein.

This isn't rocket science; this is as plain as day. China conducted genetic manipulation of their Bat-SARS-like virus and created a new virus capable of infecting humans. That new virus was apparently released and is the "novel coronavirus" the world is now battling.

Residential committees, village officials and companies from various provinces and municipalities issued a strict order to locals after receiving instructions from their superiors to tackle the epidemic, it has emerged. They have ordered citizens to "get rid of" their pets or face having them culled.

One village in Hebei urged all households to 'deal with' their pets within five days, otherwise officials would 'handle' them altogether; while another residential committee in Shaanxi instructed people to 'consider the overall situation' and dispose of their cats and dogs immediately.

One flyer in Wuhan, the epicentre of coronavirus, warned that any animals seen outdoors would be caught, killed and buried on the spot, reports Mail Online.

China says pets can carry the bio-weapon virus and spread it to others.

The World Health Organisation, which declared coronavirus a global health emergency on Friday, has said there's no evidence the virus has been transmitted to domestic animals.

China is only about 30 Days into this outbreak, and their entire country and society are already collapsing. What you see above OVER THERE, is just 30 days away from happening OVER HERE.

Are you preparing?

Bear in mind that all this is just ONE MONTH into the outbreak. ONE MONTH! What we see happening in China, can -- and very likely WILL -- happen here, in America.

Trump imposes travel restrictions, mandatory quarantines over coronavirus outbreak

Published Fri, Jan 31 2020

Key Points

- The Trump administration on Friday declared the coronavirus a public health emergency in the United States, and announced that people who pose a risk of transmitting the disease will temporarily be suspended from entering the U.S.
- Health and Human Services Secretary Alex Azar said that President Donald Trump signed an order for the U.S. to deny entry to foreign nationals who have traveled to China within the past two weeks, aside from the immediate family of U.S. citizens.
- Azar, speaking to reporters at the White House, also said that any U.S. citizens who have been in China's Hubei province — home of Wuhan, the epicenter of the virus — within the last 14 "will be subject to up to 14 days of mandatory quarantine to ensure they're provided proper medical care and health screening."

How Bad Will Things Get? Paul Martin-CSS

Play to 8:42: <https://youtu.be/vR6el2SecJE?t=217>

WILL THE CORONA VIRUS CAUSE A GLOBAL ECONOMIC COLLAPSE?

Under the category, the more things change, the more they stay the same. Along this line of thinking, I feel like it's the Monday before Black Tuesday in 1929. I know that many of you have family members who think you are insane to suggest that your bank could fail and the economy could fail due to the spread of the Coronavirus.

My heart breaks for many of my fellow Americans who will never know what hit them. Despite several and multiple warnings coming from both this publication and dozens of others that the crash of the U.S. economy could come at any time, and the warning signs, but globally and domestically are already in place. However, the cognitive dissonance crowd will continue to go through life as if nothing is wrong. How can we be certain that bad days lie ahead?

The Baltic Dry Index

In the light of the Coronavirus, which is spreading with no end in sight, more people are feeling compelled to ask the question, will the global economy fail? Some are predicting that the global economy, including the US economy will fail due to the introduction of new factors such as the Coronavirus. How will we be able to tell if this happening?

Before the introduction of the Coronavirus, the global economy was already in deep trouble. What people should know is that back in December of 2019, before the Coronavirus went active, the global economy was on the verge of collapse. How do we know? We know because of what the Baltic Dry Index was doing. The Baltic Dry Index (BDI) is a shipping and trade index created by the London-based Baltic Exchange. It measures changes in the cost of transporting various raw materials, such as coal and steel. In short, the BDI is one of the best indicators on how the global economy is performing. The fact that the Baltic Dry Index focuses on raw materials is important because demand for raw materials provides a glimpse into the future. In short, the DBI tells economists and governmental leaders how the global economy is doing at a given point in time as well as provides a means to predict future economic trends much like the futures market.

Before the introduction of the Coronavirus, Chinese-American trade tensions had already been contributing to a plummeting BDI, which would indicate that the global economy is in trouble and certainly the American economy would follow suit. In December, analysts were already sighting a relentless slide of the BDI. Before the recent trade deal was signed by China and the USA, the BDI had already plummeted by a staggering 78%!

The preceding chart makes it crystal clear that the global economy was on verge of collapse prior to the signing of the Chinese trade deal. With the subsequent signing of the deal, happy days should be here again because of the new trade deal. However, there is a new variable that has entered the scene and it is the Coronavirus and certainly this virus has all the makings of an uncontrolled pandemic. In these circumstances, people begin to become reclusive. They avoid public places. Malls get less foot traffic and as a result retail sales may plummet. In addition, people will eat out less, go to less public events and travel less. The latter factor has been exacerbated because the Coronavirus has invaded Carnival Cruise Lines. Trade will also slow down. How do we know? Because the BDI will tell us so. Many economists that I have spoken to are concerned that the global economy will continue to decline as a result of the Coronavirus. Do these fears have merit? It does not matter. Perception drives reality. If the people on this planet believe that their health is threatened by this virus, the global economy, already on thin ice, will collapse.

N95 Masks Are USELESS unless eye protection is worn as well--Coronavirus can enter the Body Through EYEBALLS--Warns Infected Doctor in Wuhan, China (Natural News) N95 masks don't create a full facial seal, and a doctor in China is now warning that he contracted coronavirus by failing to wear a full face mask. Importantly most health care professionals shown in the media are wearing only N95-style masks which are pointless and don't stop the wearer from becoming infected.

As reported by the media in Asia (originally in Mandarin Chinese):

(Translated) This person is Wang Guangfa, a physician at Peking University Hospital. He previously went to Wuhan to investigate the epidemic, and later emphasized to the public that the epidemic was "preventable and controllable." Now he became a patient and caused a lot of outcry among citizens.

Wang Guangfa went on to point out that the second point of doubt was that he had visited fever clinics and temporary isolation wards in several hospitals 2 days before returning to Beijing. Some hospitals had crowded fever clinics, and patients with neocoronavirus pneumonia were likely to be present. Although they were also highly alert to enter with N95 masks, in retrospect, he suddenly realized that everyone was not equipped with protective glasses. Therefore, it is suspected that the virus first entered the conjunctiva and then spreads to the whole body.

Listener Question and Comment on Pandemic Protective Eyewear

On Fri, Jan 31, 2020, at 3:56 PM, C Lemm wrote:

I was looking at the link for the seal proof glasses you gave in your last newsletter. The reviews don't seem great as far as tight fit around the nose to keep germs out. Furthermore, these googles also have indirect vents located so that air can circulate so it doesn't fog up. Got me thinking-wouldn't swimming goggles work even better? They seal tightly around the entire eye. They are also cheaper in most cases. Plus, I need some for kids 5years, 8years and want the best fit. I curious as to what are your thoughts are on this idea? Also, what about swabbing the inner nose with colloidal silver and if so what strength you'd use? https://www.amazon.com/TOPLUS-Protection-Swimming-Triathlon-Waterproof/dp/B082KN82JH/ref=sr_1_10?dchild=1&keywords=swimming+goggles&qid=1580503884&s=sporting-goods&sr=1-10

Dr. Johnson's Comment: Yes you could use swimming goggles but you would run into the same fogging issues most likely. You could probably use them short term but they would tend to fog up pretty quickly if you were moving around a lot, generating body heat. You can buy anti-fog spray you can apply to the inside of the goggles or mask. If you are going to swab I would advise going all the way and just spraying the colloidal silver into the inner nose and nasal passages via a nasal spray bottle like the one listed here on this page:

Gas Mask Recommendations: Invest in gas masks for each member of your household. But remember the gas mask is only as good as the seal to your skin, so don't put all your eggs in this basket. SGE 150 Protective Mask at: 1-877-AGM-1010

Go to: www.approvedgasmasks.com/sge150.htm

It is virtually impossible to find safety glasses without ventilation channels as these would tend to fog up very quickly without them.

Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio and the other military bases will house up to 250 people in individual rooms until Feb. 29. HHS would be responsible for all care,

CORONAVIRUS OUTBREAK PREPARE IMMEDIATELY

When things go crazy here in America, there will be all sorts of unanticipated service disruptions. The general public remains blissfully unaware of the utter disaster coming at us, because the mass-media is keeping rather quiet about the situation. But when they can't keep quiet any longer, there will be PANIC. You should PREPARE NOW because once things go sideways, it will be too late.

Here are suggested "Preps" to try to get yourself and your family through what's coming. There is precious little time left . . .

The best strategy for this is NOT to be exposed.

So how might we protect ourselves while we're out?

Well, the fact this virus can be spread by air, in addition to staying alive on surfaces like counter tops, desks, water fountains, door handles, inside cars and buses, product packages on store shelves that someone else handled, or sneezed-on or coughed-on, - including ones that get delivered by mail, FedEx, UPS, etc. -- complicates things greatly.

Step One: Stay home. Do not go out unless you absolutely MUST.

Step Two: Presuming you have to go out (we ALL do) wear a filter mask eye and hand protective gear (below).

The N-95 filter masks are almost completely sold out already, nationwide. So you can get a better mask rated as N-100 or P-100 for the time being until THEY sell out. Links to various suppliers are HERE-N-95 and HERE N-100. (I am NOT the seller)

You can also get the VASTLY AVAILABLE 3M 7500 (HERE) which uses 3M 2091 filters (HERE) This mask system is more expensive, but it works and is widely still available. (Again, I am NOT the seller)

Get Eye Protection, either cheap swimmer goggles (HERE) or better safety goggles (HERE)

Get a box of rubber/nitrile Gloves (Here)

Wear this gear when you go out.

THIS IS URGENTLY IMPORTANT:

The absolute moment you get home, take off your shoes and leave them in the foyer. DO NOT WALK AROUND YOUR HOUSE IN SHOES YOU WORE OUTSIDE. You may have walked on a large amount of infected material as you were out and if you wear those shoes in the house, the virus will spread in the house.

Next: Go into the bathroom, take off your clothing, put it in a hamper or plastic bag, and take a shower. You HAVE TO WASH OFF any virus that may have landed on your body or hair, while you were out.

Put on clean garments. You cannot go sit in your chair or lay on your couch or bed in clothing you wore outside. The virus will come off the clothing, onto the furniture and pow, someone in the house catches it.

Make every person in your household do this the absolute moment they come home. This virus is HIGHLY CONTAGIOUS and it KILLS people. We cannot skimp or get lazy protecting ourselves.

Recommend Protocol For The Corona Virus

Corona Virus or SARS: (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome):

Invive 5000ppm (or preferably 10,000 ppm if you can afford it) - 15 cc (= 1 "measuring" TABLEspoon), every 4 hours till asymptomatic.

++Invive 5000ppm Mild Silver Protein ++ When combating an advancing presentation of Corona Virus or SARS within the subject individual, it is "MANDATORY" to maintain a "STEADY STATE" of Silver in your bloodstream every 4 hours = 6 times per day for adults of 120 lbs and up, (but reduced for children via percentage of their bodyweight in relation to 120 lbs.).

NB: Re Dosage= we used the 10,000 ppm: The above dosage "is" the dosage that saved our patient in Beijing, but whose Doctor died, and 16 of the Hospital nurses also died, but our patient survived.

Then the Premier of China wanted to know "why" our patient was alive and the 16 nurses were dead.

The Premier sent their Chinese representative Mr. Djueng and a Diplomatic Courier to our Doctor's Office in Los Angeles, and our silver was flown DIRECTLY to the Premier of China's office, in a diplomatic pouch bypassing Customs for them to "inspect" and "examine" our cure.

BTW:

We didn't get a penny, as they just copy catted our formula.

But they couldn't discover the molar ratios of certain ingredients, so they could not stabilize it for longer than 6 months.

Scott,

1.) The Chinese will just cheat you, will copycat our formula again, because that is their proven nature and TRACK RECORD with all products they find.

2.) Plus the USA government wants to kill off the Chinese, just like

3.) they are killing off the Africans with AIDS.

So the USA government will STOP you from shipping anything to China to save the Chinese.

The USA government STOPPED US before and turned back our shipments to save Africa.

Welcome to the real world/Satan's World.
